STAFF CORRESPONDENT I. N. SERVICE! WASHINGTON, AUE. 13. - President Harding believes that highly important progress along the lines of tax revision has thus fur been accomplished by his administration.

In a statement issued today he white house, it is asserted that the whole tax reform program or the administration, contemplates freeing business from what have been found 'paralyzing and exasporating conditions, encouraging to the utmost the resumption of chterprises and business removing every incentive to evasion and fraud and distributing the tax burden with the greatest possible equity on those best able to pay-

The aim of the administration in its revenue revision program, according to the statement, is to establish methods that would "raise the needed revenue within reasonable certainty that would make collection sure and inexpensive and that would properly adjust the burden amount all classes of the community.

The administration emphasized that no effort has been made to relieve the rich of their share of the burdens. that steps have been taken so that no class will be left an avenue of recall from these. The administration claims that the rich man's taxes under the program will produce about $1,800 000,000 while the balance will be distributed over the entire community rich and poor. The rich beng cartain because they are proportionately the greatest consumers, to pay a propor-
